

31 Goth Ways to Celebrate Halloween

- I. Visit a graveyard.
- II. Go to a Halloween themed goth night.
- III. Incorporate Halloween themed items such as spiders and cobwebs in your daily style.
- IV. Carve a pumpkin but in a non-traditional way. Paint it or cover it in lace.
- V. Collect acorns and paint or draw runes or occult symbols on them. Use them as home decor.
- VI. Read popular gothic books and authors, such as Dracula and Poe.
- VII. Observe the full moon by doing a ritual or observance.
- VIII. Make a gothic Halloween playlist.
- IX. Dress up like a goth musician.
- X. If you like gore, learn how to some simple SFX make up.
- XI. Learn about the history of goth culture and how it has been inspired by Halloween and vice a versa.
- XII. Go outdoors and watch the night skies.
- XIII. Visit your local witch store or apothecary.
- XIV. Make a gothic frappuccino.
- XV. Have a Halloween themed photoshoot.
- XVI. Go see the leaves as they change color.
- XVII. Make a gothic inspired painting or other art piece with the colors of autumn in mind.
- XVIII. Learn how to make a photogram and make a spooky one.
- XIX. Dress up your pet with a gothic theme.
- XX. Journal on what embracing the dark is to you.
- XXI. Have a get together and decorate it using gothic items and themes.
- XXII. Create a Halloween gathering at your work.
- XXIII. Gothify your Renaissance Faire garb.
- XXIV. Visit a haunted site or tour near you.
- XXV. Paint your nails and do your makeup using Halloween colors or symbols.
- XXVI. Make some black ice cream to put on top of some (black?) pie.
- XXVII. Learn about the different types of goth style.
- XXVIII. Find Halloween home decor!
- XXIX. Buy black pasta and have goth spaghetti.
- XXX. Find an abandoned building near you (that is safe! Be smart!) and take photographs.
- XXXI. Make a series of photographs that have to do with Halloween. It can be a photo a day or something black or orange, or even how many things you can find with bats on them.